Salary Determination

- The ODNI uses a rank-in-person system in which rank is attached to the individual. A selected ODNI candidate or other Federal Government candidate will be assigned to the position at the employee's current GS grade and salary.
- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Deputy Director of National Intelligence for Intelligence Integration (DDNI/II) serves as the Director of National Intelligence's (DNI) senior leader for intelligence integration across the IC enterprise. DDNI/II is responsible for ensuring customer outcomes by leading advances in collection and analysis that ensure the quality, timeliness, and utility of insights for the nation's decision-makers. Additionally, DDNI/II is responsible for increasing expertise and improving tradecraft at all levels through specialization, integration, and collaboration. DDNI/II is responsible for the strategic vision, direction, and planning to deliver a more integrated IC reflecting the collective wisdom of our collection and analytic components to advance, in support of the National Intelligence Managers, the Unifying Intelligence Strategies (UIS).

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Plan, promote and lead the collaboration and coordination with other analysts and professionals to determine their specific analytical information and support needs and recommend and successfully apply a variety of quantitative or qualitative approaches to analyze and resolve the analytical issues identified.
- Plan and manage the development and application of new or established analytical methods and tools within the component's area of focus, the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI), and across the Intelligence Community (IC) that add value, rigor, and precision to the organization's analysis and collection programs and activities.
- Apply full-range of methodological tools and approaches to gain a comprehensive understanding of complex analytical issues for USG agencies and organizations; lead, plan, and direct the inclusion of the results of these analyses and findings into a broad range of well-crafted, insightful, and sophisticated intelligence products or actionable intelligence.
- Analyze, evaluate, and assess appropriate quantitative and qualitative data to contribute to or produce analytic reports or actionable intelligence in response to customer requirements; interpret and effectively communicate the results of these analyses in terms that can be understood by technical and non-technical clients and staff.
- Cultivate and maintain positive customer relationships in order to gather input and feedback for addressing analytical issues; provide effective briefings to senior internal and external customers on the analytical content of complex intelligence products and the development of future analytical tools and methodologies.
